Subject: Hotel Eden

Kevin/Millan/[Ex. 7(c)]

U.S. Embassy/Rome checked into the Hotel Eden that Administrator Pruitt prefers in Rome. They do have availability of two rooms for Administrator and Mrs. Pruitt as well as [Ex. 7(c)] however not at the U.S. Government rate. The cost would be 1195 Euro or US$1,104 per night per room. The Administrator would be responsible for the amount over the US$ 343 per diem rate out of his pocket ($761 per night x 5 nights = $3,805). In addition, EPA would have to cover the cancellation cost at the Regina Baglioni that Ryan approved us to reserve for the two rooms that would cost about $1,029. AO would have to discuss with EPA's lawyers whether the cancellation fee would come out of the Administrator's personal funds or EPA.

For the time being, I have kept the reservations at the Regina Baglioni as we originally agreed and Ryan approved. If the Administrator would like to stay at the Hotel Eden and take on the extra expenses, let me know and we can make the changes.

Thanks, Mark
